THE "WHY" OF IT.

In all piano players, the "pneumatic" are the vital part of the entire mechanism. In all piano players, EXCEPT THE CECILIAN these "pneumatic" are made of wood and leather and that's where the trouble comes in. Ever get your shoes wet and have them dry hard and stiff? Leather will do that in damp weather, for it absorbs the moisture. Ever had a door or window stick in your house? It's because the wood swells during the damp weather. That's the trouble with the wood and leather "pneumatic." They are affected by the constant changes in the weather and can't do the work properly.

In the Cecilian Piano Player mechanism the "pneumatic" and the wind chest are made of metal—brass, steel and phosphor bronze—weather doesn't affect them in any way. They don't swell, neither do they shrink, and that's why they are always in perfect working order.

High Grade Goods at Popular Prices

Happy New Year TO ALL

Is The Hearty Wish of Louisville's Popular Price Store.

We wish everyone to be merry and enjoy to the fullest extent the New Year.

We also take this means to thank our customers for their liberal and esteemed patronage for the year of 1906.

The volume of our business grows greater every day, and we feel compelled to enlarge our present store, which in all probability will be done within the year.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Milwaukee has a division with 500 members, one of the largest in the United States.

After the first of the year John A. Murphy's entire energies will be directed toward making the County Board's affairs successful.

Pat Burke, another of 4's war horses, brought an application with him this week, and says he'll have a few more two weeks hence.

John P. Mellon's smiling face loomed up at No. 4's meeting Wednesday. John is ex-Treasurer of this division and one of its most loyal members.

Rejoicing followed the annual reports of the officers of Division 1 at Scranton, which showed a healthy treasury and a wonderfully increased membership.

Rev. Bernard M. O'Boylan, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church at Newark, Ohio, was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by the Hibernians of that city.

Division of Syracuse will have a great time next Friday night. State President John W. Dorsey will be the guest of honor and will install the officers.

Division 3 of Syracuse has closed a contract with Michael O'Brien for an electrical display for its ball on New Year's eve that will eclipse anything ever previously attempted in that city.

Division 4 is considering several sites for a new meeting place at the expiration of the present term. A more central location than the present one will be the means of booming the division.

Twenty-five members were initiated into the first and second degrees and fifteen avocations presented at the last meeting of Division 11 of Fall River, Mass. The annual election was held and a social session followed.

Under favorable auspices a division was recently organized in St. Patrick's parish at Moxham, Pa. about three hundred members of the order being present from various parts of the country. The division will be known as No. 15, and will have sixty members before the new year.

Enthusiasm ran high at the Hibernian election held at Shubert Theater Hall in Milwaukee. Prof. Michael G. Rohan, of Marquette College, whose broad knowledge of the aims and objects of Hibernianism and every phase of the Irish question renders him worthy the office, was elected County President.

Many divisions have elected new officers; others have decided to let their officers have another term. These officers will be installed next month and should realize their duty. They are elected to watch over their members and make the divisions grow. Unless there is growth there will be no success, and the newly elected officers should fully realize this.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians stands for the protection of the home, and its divisions furnish a place of safe retreat and social enjoyment for all of its members, where they will not come from the promptings of duty simply, but because of the warmth and cheer and fellowship which they find and enjoy there. Let us emphasize continually the value of our meetings as a means as well as for upbuilding the order.

The St. Paul Hibernian festival and bazaar closed its doors in the wee sma' hours of Saturday after midnight in one blaze of financial glory. The house was armful of such many other terms it may be called—was unique in the history of Irish festivals in St. Paul in that it represented things as they are done, say in Dublin, Ireland, on such occasions very much. The net proceeds of the weeks' entertainment is not yet figured up, but suffice to say at this time it will reach the thousands mark.

EUCHE PARTY.

"Too much Christmas" was probably responsible for the small attendance at Division 4's meeting on Wednesday night. James Kenesley and Pete Linski were reported still on the sick list and the application of W. J. Hanagan was received. Jos-

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

The new Walnut Hill Council having secured the requisite number of applications, Cincinnati will soon boast of four councils.

Minnesota has flourishing councils at Rochester and Fairbault. The reports made when the annual elections were held showed a steady growth in membership as well as finances.

Little has been doing in K. C. circles during the past two weeks, the most important business being the election of officers and arranging for the customary New Year receptions.

The proceeds of the charity ball to be given next month under the auspices of the Long Island Chapter, which comprises forty-three councils, will go to endow a hospital bed fund, to be held in trust, and from it will be paid the cost of maintaining beds in various hospitals throughout Brooklyn.

AMUSEMENTS.

For New Year's week the Masonic's attraction will be the comedy drama "Texas." This is said to be a true and picturesque story of life on the ranch and is said to be excellently portrayed by the cast to be seen here.

Patrons of the Buckingham are promised an entertainment of exceptional merit next week. The Broadway Gaiety Girls and John Weber are booked for the occasion with the usual daily matinee during the engagement. Judging from the bill there are many features that are above mere vaudeville and sure to please.

The Hopkins management will present a lively assortment of acts for New Year's week, and indications point to the strongest programme offered this season. All-star vaudeville is promised the patrons of this theater for New Year's week. Eight big acts will be presented at each performance, including comedy, singing and athletics, a bill high class and diversified, topped off with a fine new lot of moving pictures.

Playgoers will welcome the announcement that the Rogers Brothers will be at Macaulay's next week. They will be seen Monday and Tuesday with a New Year's day matinee. Fred Mace will be on Wednesday matinee and evening in the musical play "The Empire." Ben Greet's Players will be at Macaulay's the last half of the week, presenting "The Merchant of Venice," "Twelfth Night" and the religious drama "Everyman."

LAD TO REST.

Mrs. Sarah Potter, widow of Jonas Potter and for over half a century a highly respected resident of this city, passed to her heavenly reward Tuesday afternoon, death resulting from infirmities incident to her advanced age. Mrs. Potter was the sister of Mrs. Thomas Connell, 1527 West Walnut street, with whom she resided during the later years of her life. She is the mother of Mrs. Daniel P. Gallagher and a sister of Phil McCue, of Elizabeth, Ind., both of whom survive her. Deceased was a woman of many long Christian virtues and for many long years had taken much interest in the charity work of the Cathedral congregation. Her funeral took place from the Cathedral on Thursday morning and was largely attended.

DEPUTY NEVITT.

Grand President Martin has issued the commission of Leo Nevitt, who will be Council Deputy for St. Catharine's Council, Y. M. I., at New Haven. Deputy Nevitt is a young man of sterling character, and the honor that was bestowed upon him will most assuredly redound to the good of the council.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

In an interview Lord Clanciarde declared that all the trouble on his estates was due to the Wyndham act of 1903. He resented the Premier's attack upon himself.

On recommendation of Lord Clanciarde, Lieutenant for the county, the Lord Chancellor has appointed John J. D'Arcy, of Clifton, to the Commission of the Peace for the County of Galway.

At the meeting of the Ballinasloe Rural District Council a letter was read from the Bishop of Clonfert explaining the conditions under which houses and plots could be secured for laborers under the new labor act.

A very malicious affair took place in Bawn district last week. It is alleged that some person laid a quantity of poison along the public road, with the result that a large number of dogs, a pig, and a number of fowl were poisoned.

There are few if any estates sold under the Wyndham act in County Cork on which tenants have secured terms as favorable as those on the O'Connor property in Ballingearry. The tenants, who are mostly second term, will buy at twenty years' purchase of the second term rents.

Justice Madden opened the Leinster winter assizes at Wicklow. His Lordship said that the cases—thirty-one in number, or a little over two cases for each of the twelve counties and one city over which they have jurisdiction—were almost universally of an extremely light character.

Edward Donaghy, a farmer, resident of Ballytrain, has returned from Anaconda, Montana, where he spent six years. He was one of the old members of the Ballytrain Fire-side Club of over twelve years ago, and was greeted by a number of friends and former acquaintances.

An inquest on the body of William O'Connor, a plumber, who was killed at Goulding's manure works, was adjourned for the attendance of an inspector of factories, the coroner remarking that great public inconveniences was caused by the non-attendance of factory inspectors in these cases.

James and Thomas Donnelly, brothers employed in the factory of Dickson & Co., at Drogheda, were each presented by their better halves with twins—boys. The grandparents and great-grandparents of the new arrivals are alive, and in good health. The infants were christened Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

Some sensation was caused in Bandon at the news of the strange disappearance of a woman named Murphy, of Stanton's lane. It is stated she was suffering from insomnia, and left her house barefooted. Nothing has been heard of her, despite the efforts of the constabulary to locate her whereabouts.

The tenants on the Pennington estate, which embraces the townlands of Ballyvolcan and Ballymorishan, in the parish of Donaghmore, have signed agreements to purchase their holdings. The terms agreed upon are twenty-one years' purchase on first term rents, half year's rent to be paid in lieu of all arrears, 3 1/2 per cent. interest to be paid until the purchase money is advanced by the Land Commission. The game rights go to the tenants, mining claims to be invested in the Land Commission.

J. H. Lentaigue, the landlord of Corlath, is in very bad temper because his tenants wouldn't give twenty-four years' purchase. He had a number of rent appeals tried before the Chief Commission recently in Carrickmacross. These tenants got fair rents fixed about three years ago; notice of appeal was served immediately, but not proceeded with till now, and if the sale had gone on at the landlord's price it is certain that nothing more would be heard of them. The tenants also got civil bill judgments for the November rent.

RECEPTION FOR DIRECTOR.

The President and officers of the Gregorian Congregation, of Covington, have planned for a large reception in honor of Alfred Booth, of Liverpool, England, who is just succeeding Harold Beckett Gibbs as Director of Music at the Covington Cathedral. The reception will be at the Cathedral rectory on the evening of January 7.
